

UCLA Panhellenic Scholarship | Spring 2024

The Panhellenic Council at UCLA cherishes the privilege of serving such a robust and well-rounded community: a community that embodies scholarship, leadership, service, and sisterhood. This year, we will recognize the achievements of the women in our community and award them for their academic excellence by introducing an opportunity for UCLA Panhellenic Scholarships.

This quarter, the Panhellenic Council will have eight (8) $500 scholarships that all women in the UCLA Panhellenic community are eligible to apply for.

Scholarship recipients will be selected through a selection committee comprised of the Panhellenic VP Scholarship, other members of the Panhellenic Executive Board, the Panhellenic Council advisor, and scholarship chairs across the Panhellenic chapters.

All scholarship recipients will be invited to attend the annual Panhellenic Awards Night on May 23, 2024, during which they will be recognized and presented with their scholarships.

Submission Guidelines:

All submissions must follow the application on Pages 2-3 of this document and must include all supplementary information required. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Applicants may submit additional supplemental information, such as (but not limited to) a letter of recommendation, a transcript, etc.
